Attempted Adult Abduction on Easton Avenue

The New Brunswick Police Department is investigation an attempted abduction that occurred in the late evening on January 25, 2021. The victim (adult female) reports that while walking along Easton Avenue, between Bristol and Prospect Streets, a red 4-door pickup truck pulled up alongside her and the male driver demanded she get inside. The driver pointed a handgun at her while he demanded she get inside the truck. The female victim fled the area and the suspect vehicle proceeded down Easton Avenue towards Somerset Street. No injuries were sustained from the incident.

The suspect vehicle is described as a newer 4-door pickup truck, possibly a Honda Ridgline. The suspect driver is described as an older white male, possibly in his late 30's or early 40's. Anyone with information is asked to call Detective Keith Walcott at (732) 745-5217. If anyone sees the suspect vehicle, they should NOT approach the vehicle, but call 9-1-1 or the New Brunswick Police Department main number at (732) 745-5200.
