

EARTH DAY IS EVERY DAY

Join New Brunswick in celebrating Earth Day - online and at home – all year long!

For Earth Day and every day, there are many family-friendly online programs and activities to help us celebrate the Earth!

Rutgers Cooperative Extension created an EARTH DAY AT HOME interactive webinar series to help residents learn about yard and garden care and related topics. The series takes place on Monday evenings at 6:30 and you can also view all of their previous webinars at: <https://envirostewards.rutgers.edu/EarthDayatHome2020.html>

Check out Rutgers/Planning a Vegetable Garden Fact Sheet: <https://njaes.rutgers.edu/fs129>

Rutgers Cooperative Extension network is also offering online programs for youth through its "4-H from Home" program, including STEM activities and community services. <https://4-h.org/about/4-h-at-home>

RECYCLE COACH

Make sure to recycle right with the free Recycle Coach app. It's simple and easy to use. Download it to access your waste schedule, to receive weekly reminders and sort your waste correctly with the "What Goes Where" search tool. www.cityofnewbrunswick.org/coach.

New Jersey is the first state to bring RECYCLE COACH technology, free of charge, to all residents to help increase recycling rates statewide and provide information in a simple, clear, and concise manner.

Thanks to the Department of Environmental Protection who purchased RECYCLE COACH'S online technology, New Brunswick residents can access information through their smart devices and computer.
