Body Found Outside Plum Street Parking Deck Appears to be Suicide

This morning a fifty (50) year old woman from Crosswicks, NJ fell to her death as the result of an apparent suicide. The woman was found at the base of the Plum Street Parking Deck (10 Plum Street) at approximately 3:45am. The initial police investigation suggests she fell from an upper level of the deck. New Brunswick police detectives continue to investigate, but at this time there does not appear to be any signs of foul play or suspicious circumstances surrounding the incident. The name of the woman is being withheld at this time.

Because of the early morning police investigation, the Plum Street Parking Deck was closed to patrons and daily parkers. The deck was re-opened at approximately 10:00am. Anyone with information about this incident can contact Detective Ronoldy Martinez at (732) 745-5217.
