Early Morning Robbery Injures Two

Early this morning at approximately 3:30 am two males from Princeton were assaulted and robbed while sitting on a porch within the 300 block of Seaman Street. Both victims were extremely intoxicated at the time of the incident and could provide little suspect information or the events which led up to the robbery. Renee Lopez (26 years of age) received a laceration to the back of his head when he was attacked. It is unclear if Mr. Lopez was stabbed or hit with a blunt object to cause the laceration. He was transported to Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital where he was treated for his non-life threatening injury. Raul Lopez (24 years of age) was punched in the face from the attack and incurred a swollen lip. The suspects took Mr. Lopez’s cell phone and fled the scene. The victims could only describe the two suspects as thin African American males.

The New Brunswick Police Detective Bureau is actively investigating this incident and asks if anyone has additional information to contact Detective Harry Lemmerling at (732) 745-5217.
