Suspect Arrested in Connection with Saturday Morning Shooting

On Thursday evening New Brunswick police detectives arrested Farrahd Williams (23 year old male from New Brunswick) outside his Rutgers Street home in connection with a shooting which occurred on Saturday morning at approximately 1:17 am outside the Court Tavern (Church Street and Spring Street). The preliminary investigation suggests that Mr. Williams shot multiple times at two individuals stemming from an argument inside the Court Tavern earlier in the evening. The shooting took place outside the tavern when the victims were leaving the establishment. The victims were identified as Charlton Stevens (23 year old male from Hackensack, NJ) and Emyle Duverger (25 year old male from Brooklyn, NY). Both victims were shot in the legs and were treated at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital for their non-life threatening injuries.

Farrahd Williams has been charged with Attempted Murder, Aggravated Assault, Unlawful Possession of a Handgun and Possession of a Handgun for an Unlawful Purpose. This investigation is ongoing and anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Erika DiMarcello at (732) 735-5217.
