Police Investigate Early Morning Assault

The New Brunswick Police Department is investigating an assault that occurred in the area of Hamilton Street and Union Street at approximately 2:30 am this morning. The preliminary investigation suggests that two adult males (23-year-old male from North Brunswick and 24-year-old male from Edison) were assaulted by four to six unidentified suspects after a verbal altercation developed between the groups. The victim from North Brunswick received a head injury as a result of the assault, and is being treated at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital. The victim from Edison received minor scratches and bruising to his neck but declined medical attention.

The suspects are described as three (3) to five (5) white males and one (1) Hispanic or Asian male. No clothing description or direction of flight are known at this time. Anyone with information about the incident is asked to contact Detective Raymond Quick at (732) 745-5217.
