Exxon Robbery Suspect Apprehended

On Wednesday, May 10, 2017 New Brunswick Police detectives located Cesar Rodriguez (45 year old male from New Brunswick) at the La Mirage Hotel in South Brunswick. Mr. Rodriguez was wanted for a robbery which occurred at the Exxon Gas Station in New Brunswick (168 Commercial Avenue) on May 9, 2017 at approximately 11:36 pm. During the robbery Mr. Rodriguez approached the gas station attendant and displayed a black handgun and demanded cash. An undisclosed amount of money was turned over to Mr. Rodriguez and he fled the area in a 4-door, red Toyota Camry. The gas station attendant was able to provide the license plate number on the suspect vehicle to investigating detectives.

Mr. Rodriguez was apprehended without incident on May 10th at approximately 5:00pm. He is charged with Robbery and Weapons offenses. Anyone with additional information on this incident is asked to contact Detective Brandt Gregus at (732) 745-5217.
