July 4th Altercation Leads to Gun Arrest

Following leads that developed from a large disturbance on July 4th, detectives were able to identify the individual who waved a firearm at a disorderly crowd in the Robeson Village neighborhood. At approximately 11:30 pm on July 4th, New Brunswick officers responded to Robeson Village for a large disturbance in the parking lot area, and reports of a man with a gun. During the incident, Marcellous Goines (33 year old Male from Kendall Park, NJ) was arrested and charged with disorderly persons offenses.

During the subsequent days, detectives were able to piece together details of the July 4th incident and identify the individual who threatened the crowd with a gun. Alberto Gomez (22 year old male from New Brunswick) was arrested without incident on July 6, 2017 in Robeson Village at approximately 4:00 pm. He is charged with multiple firearm offenses. The gun and boxes of ammunition were recovered in a wooded area of Jersey Avenue where they were hidden after the incident.

Anyone with information about the July 4th incident is asked to contact Detective Drew Weiss at (732) 745-5217.
