Police Investigate Late-Night Carjacking

New Brunswick Police detectives are investigating a carjacking that occurred within the 100 block of Townsend Street. At approximately 11:58 pm (August 5, 2017), an adult male victim and friend were standing outside his parked vehicle when three African-American males who displayed handguns, and demanded the keys to the vehicle approached him. The victim turned over the keys to the vehicle and the three suspects fled in the vehicle towards Remsen Avenue without incident. The stolen vehicle was a 2007 black Nissan Murano. No injuries were sustained as a result of the robbery. Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Raymond Quick at (732) 745-5217.
